CIRCUMSTANCES OF OFFENSE

ROBB 1ST & ADM - ALAMEDA - #29923

FACTS:

1203.01 STATEMENT: "...On November 20, 1958, at 11:45 p.m., defendant [REDACTED] entered the Skipper Bar,....Berkeley, sat down and ordered a beer. He remained in the bar approximately 5 minutes and returned to his co-defendants, stating to them the bar was clear. Thereupon defendants [REDACTED] and Matlock entered the bar, while [REDACTED] remained as lookout and getaway driver of his 1958 Plymouth automobile parked nearby. Matlock went to the rear of the bar and asked the bartender for Scotch whiskey. Defendants [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] remained near the front door of the bar. As the bartender straightened up from behind the bar with the Scotch bottle in hand, Matlock pointed a blue steel short revolver at him and told him, "Get back against the bar; this is a hold-up." [REDACTED] produced a small calibre automatic pistol and vaulted the bar, took the cash (approximately $200.00) from the cash register. While doing this, he was wearing gloves. The bartender and guests were forced into the rear storage room and defendant produced a length of venetian blind cord and caused one of the guests to tie up the others. In the interim, [REDACTED] forced the bartender to open the safe and additional money (approximately $15.00) was taken from there. One of the defendants took from the bartender a man's 1/2 carat diamond ring and his watch. After the bartender opened the safe, he was forced to kneel and was tied up.

"While [REDACTED] was taking cash from the register, the owner of the bar, [REDACTED] entered and was confronted by [REDACTED] who pointed his gun at him and took $14.00 from his wallet; [REDACTED] was also tied up. During the robbery the defendants referred to each other, not by name, but by number, as "1", "2" and "3".

"After all the victims had been tied, with the exception of one victim who was not tied because they ran out of rope, and he was forced to kneel, the defendants commenced beating the victims about the head, apparently with their guns. Matlock admitted striking (pistol whipping) several of the victims with his gun and [REDACTED] admitted giving at least one of them a judo-chop on the back of the neck. As above indicated, this assault was committed while the victims were tied and kneeling. Defendants offer no explanation. Victim [REDACTED] suffered two lacerations of the scalp, victim [REDACTED] a laceration of the scalp. Both men went to the hospital for their lacerations required suturing. Victims [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] suffered lumps on the back of the neck...."

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

One count of Robbery dismissed.

1203.01 STATEMENT: "... [REDACTED] James W. Matlock and [REDACTED] are wanted for participation in a similar robbery and beating of a tavern in El Cerrito on November 18, 1958...."

INMATE'S VERSION:

PERSONAL HISTORY RECORD: "Because I couldn't find a job, and Because I want to help mother."

ROBB 1st 2 GTS & KIDNAP FOR ROBBERY w/2 FFC EA CT CC & CS WPI
BERNARDINO - CR 19877

FACTS:

PROBATION OFFICER'S REPORT: "On May 29, 1966...defendant walked into the R & R Texaco Service Station located at...Barstow,...The defendant was armed with a .45 caliber blue steel automatic pistol and held up the service station attendant,...for approximately $135.00. He then fled the scene on foot.

"On May 30, 1966...at the intersection of Highway 91 & 58, Barstow, ...defendant approached a [REDACTED] who had just stopped his vehicle to fix a rattle in the rear door. The defendant then, at gun point, commandeered the victim and the victim's car, ordering the victim to drive him to a Texaco Service Station, fill the car with gas, and then to drive him to the Lamwood off-ramp. Near the Lamwood off-ramp, the defendant forced the victim out of the car and continued driving the victim's car toward Victorville."

INMATE'S VERSION:

PROBATION OFFICER'S REPORT: "The defendant denied being actually armed with a pistol. He states he simulated the display of a gun by putting his hand into his pocket with his index finger extended.

"The defendant further explained that he was on parole from the California Adult Authority and had failed to notify his Parole Officer that he was leaving the Berkeley area. The defendant states that he left the Berkeley area approximately two days prior to the present offense, went to Las Vegas with [REDACTED] and was returning to Berkeley to meet his girl friend when he had an argument with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] subsequently left him standing on the side of the road when he went to use a rest room at a service station. The defendant then states that he had to get money the quickest way he knew how in order to get home to his girl friend and decided to simulate the holdup of the service station."

1203.01 STATEMENT:

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: "Allegation of being armed dismissed because defendant plead guilty to 2 counts of robbery and 1 count of kidnapping for purpose of robbery."
